

Name _____

Class _____

Date _____

1 Write the indefinite pronoun to match the underlined words.

- Tom thinks no other person is as kind as Ben.

- I can't find my keys no place. _____
- I haven't got any person to talk to. _____
- Hannah always finds a person to talk to. _____
- Will all the people sit down and listen carefully, please? _____

10

2 Complete the sentences with some, any, no, every and a relative pronoun.

- Could I have _____ to eat, please?
- Would you like _____ to eat?
- 'Did you go _____ last night?'
- I'm so upset, _____ is going wrong.
- There's _____ who wants to speak to you.

10

3 Rewrite the sentences using the words in brackets.

- I want to upload four or five of the photos I took on holiday. (some of)

- These new programmes don't run on my computer. (none of)

- I can't open the attachments you sent. (any of)

- No students passed the test. (none of)

- Every girl wants to play football. (all of)

10

4 Find and correct the mistakes in each sentence.

- No of my friends are going to London in June.

- Can nobody speak French?

- Nobody of us can help you with your homework.

- I haven't seen your tablet everywhere.

- Tom ate any of the food.

5

5 Complete the sentences. Use should, had better or ought to.

- This area isn't safe. We _____ in the car.
- They're sleeping. You _____ noise.
- You've got an exam. You _____ for it.
- The plane is taking off. You _____ flight mode.
- You are tired. You _____ to bed early.

10

6 Find and correct the mistakes in each sentence.

- I need to buy someone for her birthday.

- I don't like sitcoms. I think none of them are boring.

- He shouldn't to shout. It scares the dog.

- Did we ought close the window?

- You'd better to hurry. You'll miss the bus.

5

TOTAL SCORE 50