

Talking about photos

1 Look at the photos and answer the questions.

About the photos

- 1 What is happening in the first photo?
- 2 What has happened in the second photo?
- 3 What are the crimes that have been committed or are about to be committed?
- 4 What feelings might the criminals have when they are committing these crimes?
- 5 What feelings may victims of crimes have?

About you

- 1 Have you ever stolen anything? If so, what?
- 2 Has anything ever been stolen from you? If so, what?
- 3 Have you ever witnessed a crime? What happened?

Role play

2 Work in pairs. Read your role and decide what you are going to say.

Student A

- You have found lots of new clothes, CDs and games in your brother's room. He doesn't have enough pocket money to pay for them. You are really worried about him as you think he might be shoplifting, but you aren't sure.
- Ask a friend for some advice.

Before you perform your role play:

- make notes about what you want to say.
- practise it together with your notes.
- practise it without your notes.

Student B

- Your friend tells you he/she thinks his/her brother is a shoplifter. Listen to him/her tell you about the problem.
- Recommend that your friend talks to his/her brother about the situation. Tell him/her to be calm and to be supportive of his/her brother.

Before you perform your role play:

- make notes about what you want to say.
- practise it together with your notes.
- practise it without your notes.

3 Act out your role play.
