

Unit 3: Present perfect and past perfect

1 Translate the following sentences.

- 1 We have moved house recently.

- 2 The house is untidy because we haven't unpacked.

- 3 My friends haven't dropped by to see my room.

- 4 Have you invited them to visit your new house?

- 5 Yes, but they haven't visited because we have to study.

2 Translate the following sentences.

- 1 My aunt had a baby boy yesterday.

- 2 They haven't left hospital yet.

- 3 I have just visited them there.

- 4 What have they called your cousin?

- 5 They haven't chosen a name yet.

3 Translate the following sentences.

- 1 My half-sister moved to Australia four months ago.

- 2 She hasn't found a job yet – she's unemployed.

- 3 She had always been disorganised and unreliable.

- 4 She has changed since she moved to Australia.

- 5 She has become more organised and reliable recently.

4 Translate the following sentences.

- 1 My cousins moved to France after they had finished university.

- 2 They hadn't been able to speak French before that.

- 3 After they had found jobs, they travelled around the country.

- 4 They didn't go to Paris until they had saved a lot of money.

- 5 They had never seen anywhere like Paris before.

Unit 4: The future

1 Translate the following sentences.

- 1 What are you doing tomorrow?

- 2 We are going to the ice rink.

- 3 Who is going with you?

- 4 Josh and Ursula are coming, but Dolores isn't coming.

- 5 Are you going anywhere tomorrow evening?

2 Translate the following sentences.

- 1 'I have forgotten my money.' 'I'll give you some.'

- 2 My friends think Ireland will win the Rugby World Cup.

- 3 I promise we'll be at the party.

- 4 What time does the martial arts gym open tomorrow?

- 5 Tomorrow is Sunday and it doesn't open on Sundays.

3 Translate the following sentences.

- 1 What are you going to do after the swimming competition?

- 2 We are going to have a party.

- 3 Next year I'm going to buy a car.

- 4 This time next year I'll have passed my test.

- 5 I'll be driving everywhere.

4 Translate the following sentences.

- 1 At eight o'clock Paula will be swimming in the pool.

- 2 By nine o'clock she will have finished swimming.

- 3 At half past nine she will be driving home.

- 4 What will she be doing at ten o'clock?

- 5 She will be sleeping.
