Tara's Travels

I love traveling. That's why I have a travel blog! On TV, you can see shows about expensive vacations in the French Riviera. You see people and celebrities staying in five-star hotels. The service is amazing and the food is incredible, but this is not the only way to travel.

There are many options to save money:

- You can get an "all-included" package trip. With this type of trip, your food and activities are "free". The price includes everything. Sometimes you can get a bargain!
- You can also rent an apartment for a day or two without spending a lot of money. It's cheaper than a hotel.
- In some areas, you can travel by train at night. Then you can sleep on the train!
- You can also stay in hostels. They're very basic. You share everything with other travelers.
- Using a guide book or a travel website can help you find safe, cheap places to stay in the best areas. Good luck!

What does Tara mention in her blog? Check (✓) six things.

- | | |
|---|--------------------------------------|
| ☐ TV shows | ☐ apartments |

Jack's Adventures

Here are two of my favorite island trips!

Bermuda is a group of islands in the Atlantic Ocean. You can fly there quickly from the US, but Bermuda is part of the UK. You'll love whale watching and relaxing on the beaches.

Oahu is one of the Hawaiian Islands in the Pacific Ocean. It's more expensive than Bermuda, but I had a wonderful time there. Surfing is popular, but there are many other activities, and the traditional hula dance shows are amazing!

Write B (Bermuda) or O (Oahu) next to the phrases.

- 1 in the Pacific Ocean ____ in the Atlantic Ocean ____
- 2 surfing and watching traditional dance shows ____
- 3 watching whales and enjoying the beaches ____
