An Unusual Festival

Today, I'm at a festival in Punxsutawney, a quiet town in Pennsylvania. Right now, Punxsutawney is as crowded and noisy as a big city! It's 6 a.m. It's very cold because it's winter. There's music and fireworks, and the atmosphere is a lot of fun.

The festival's name is Groundhog Day. Every year on February 2, thousands of people come from far away to see Phil here. But Phil's not a person. He's a groundhog!

A groundhog is an animal with short legs and brown hair.

Men from the town wear traditional black suits and big hats. At around 7:30 a.m., they talk to Phil. Phil gives them a prediction for the end of winter and the beginning of spring. Is this the end of winter? Let's see what Phil the Groundhog says!

Write T (true) or F (false) next to the statements.

- 1 The writer is in a big city. ____
- 2 This festival is on a winter morning. ____
- 3 Thousands of people celebrate this festival. ____
- 4 Everyone wears black suits and big hats. ____
- 5 Men from the town talk to a person called Phil. ____
