Art is for Everyone

Patricia Macedo is a fifteen-year-old girl with lots of interests. Like many teenagers, Patricia likes playing sports, listening to music, and watching movies. She also likes painting.

"When I started painting, I wasn't very good at it," says Patricia. "But I really enjoyed creating my pictures. It made me feel calm and relaxed. So I didn't stop." Patricia kept painting for fun. She placed her art on her bedroom walls.

After some time, Patricia had lots of colorful pictures on her walls. One day, she had an idea. She put her pictures together and made a beautiful collage. Then she took a photo of it and shared it online. She was surprised that lots of people loved her work! Patricia says, "I don't want to become a famous artist. I only want to do something I love. And I love art! Try it yourself. Art is for everyone!"

Write T (true) or F (false) next to the statements.

- Patricia Macedo only likes painting. F

WRITING

7 Read the description of a painting.

This is my favorite painting. It shows an empty street. In the ¹ middle, there is a taxi. On the ² left, I can see some buildings and street lights. On the ³ right, there are some big trees. In the background, there are more buildings and lights.

I think the painter wanted to capture the atmosphere in this street at the end of the day. It's dark and quiet. When I see this painting I feel calm.

Complete the description with the words below.
