A Do you think so? I'm not sure. They look quite heavy.
B Let's go into this jewellery shop. There are some lovely things in there.
C Not a lot, but Mum gave me some because I helped her do a few jobs.
D Shopping is brilliant. I love it.
E Yes, but they're made of gold, so they'll be too expensive for me.
F Probably Harper and Grey, opposite the hotel.
G Do you mind if I get the same T-shirt as you?
H Good idea. I can't see anything here that I want to buy.

Sloths

Sloths are the world's ....slowest.... mammals. They live on the American continent.

1 They spend nearly all of their time in trees, and sleep in them, ...

2 But if you .....a sloth on a tree branch, you don't know if it is awake

3 .....asleep. This is because sloths don't move most of the time.

4 Sloths eat leaves and fruit from the trees ..... night. They don't

5 .....to drink much water because they get so much juice from the plants they eat.

Some sloths have three very long 'toes' at the end of their front feet,

6 and some have .....two. These toes are

7 .....to hold onto tree branches, but they are not good for walking with.

It is very difficult for sloths to move across the ground, but they move better in 8 water. If they fall off a tree branch into a river, they .....to the nearest bit of land, and their long arms help them.

9 .....necks are very unusual. They have an extra piece of bone in their necks,

10 which means they can turn their heads around much further .....other mammals.
