Activity 3

The Incas and the Aztecs lived in America. The Incas were a small tribe who lived in the village of Cuzco, high in the Andes Mountains of South America. One day, another tribe attacked them. Thanks to Pachacuti, the king's son, the Incas won! That was the beginning of the Inca Empire. It was one of the largest empires in the world. It went down along the Pacific coast of South America, from Ecuador to Argentina.

The Incas invented many things like a system to grow vegetables. They grew vegetables on the mountain slopes of the Andes. They gave food to all people when there was no rain and they couldn't grow vegetables. They built roads and bridges and aqueducts. Macchu Picchu, in Peru, is the most famous Inca city. Many people visit it every year.

Activity 4
