Hi Jack!

How are you? I'm in England at the moment! I've been in Cambridge for a week now because I'm going to a language school. I'm really enjoying studying there because the teachers are great and I'm getting on really well with my classmates! I haven't been doing much outside class because I can't afford to go on the trips which the school offers – they're quite expensive! So I've been spending loads of time with my English family, which is OK because they're really nice! I like living in your country, but it's hard to get used to eating at six o'clock in the evening- that's too early for me! I'm missing my family a bit, but it's OK really because I speak to them every day on Skype!

All the best,
Francesca
