THINK
SECOND EDITION

LEVEL 4
UNIT 11 EXTENSION TEST

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 Circle the correct words.

1 The kids don't look happy. They must / can't have enjoyed the film.
2 We must / might go out for a meal tonight – we haven't decided yet.
3 Do you think your friends might / can't have got lost on their way back from town?
4 Joel is bound to / likely to have gone to bed by now – he never stays up past 10 pm.
5 She can't / may be fourteen years old – I saw her driving a car yesterday.

5

2 Rewrite the sentences with can't, must or might.

1 Susan can't have been telling the truth.
Susan _____ lying.
2 I'm certain that it didn't rain last night.
It _____.
3 You possibly forgot to post the letter.
You _____.
4 There's no way he's a famous actor.
He _____.
5 Perhaps they all went home early.
They _____.

10

3 Match the sentences.

1 Do you know what time the band are coming on? ☐
2 Why haven't I received my parcel yet? ☐
3 Simon failed his entrance exam again. ☐
4 How do you think he'll do in the dance competition? ☐
5 He's already seen this film four times. ☐

a I think he's likely to win.
b He must be a big fan.
c How awful. He can't have been happy about that.
d It can't be long now.
e It must have got lost in the post.

5

4 Complete the mini-dialogues with must (have), can't (have) or might (have).

1 A Susan is still in bed.
B She _____ (be) really tired.
2 A Why is this door damaged?
B I'm not sure. Somebody _____ (try) to break in.
3 A I'm over the moon. I passed every one of my exams.
B Well done. You _____ (study) really hard.
4 A Maybe Sandra forgot about our arrangement?
B She _____ (forget) – I texted her about it yesterday.
5 A I've got to look after my two baby cousins this evening.
B Poor you. That _____ (be) much fun.

10

PHOTOCOPIABLE © Cambridge University Press 2022

5 Rewrite the sentences using the words in brackets.

1 The high ticket prices meant that few people turned up to the show. (due)
Few people turned up to the show _____ _____ ticket prices.

2 Greg fell ill so we decided to postpone the camping trip. (because) _____ falling ill, we decided to postpone the camping trip.

3 We had a bad meal at that restaurant once, so we don't go there anymore. (result)
We don't go to that restaurant any more _____ we had there once.

4 The concert was cancelled for unexplained reasons. (due)
_____, the concert was cancelled.

5 She isn't very confident, which means she doesn't enjoy parties. (because)
She doesn't enjoy parties _____ _____ confidence.

10

6 Find and correct the mistakes in each sentence.

1 The girls must being tired after all that swimming.
_____

2 The hotel room can't be very expensive or they wouldn't have stayed there.
_____

3 Greg is bound have heard the latest news by now.
_____

4 I must be eight years old when I first saw the sea.
_____

5 We were able to afford a new car as a result of sell our old house.
_____

10

TOTAL SCORE 50

PHOTOCOPIABLE

© Cambridge University Press 2022